

LOCAL HISTORY TALK

Murdering Mad Mossy

In the drought of 1938, three men went missing near Narromine: a labourer, a gold prospector and a pensioner. Albert Andrew "Mad Mossy" Moss was sentenced for the murder of one but claimed to have killed 13 in total.

Learn about this local terror in this true crime talk from Local History volunteer Norma Meadley.

Wednesday 12 May 2021 | 11am - 12pm

Narromine Library

Bookings: contact Narromine Library on 02 6889 1088

Home Grown

mrl.nsw.gov.au